The Australian Government funded Skills Checkpoint for Older Workers (SCOW) program offers eligible persons aged 45-70 a funding contribution towards any workplace-related skills training (with a maximum rebate of $2000).

How it Works

You may be eligible for SCOW funding if you:

- ✓ Are aged between 45 and 70;
- ✓ Are not registered with an Australian Government Employment Services Provider Scheme;
- ✓ Have been out of work for 3 months or less or currently working and wanting to re-skill;
- ✓ Are already on Job-Keeper and still working
- ✓ Are an Australian citizen or PR

If eligible for the funding you will receive:

- ✓ 50% funding for the course cost, up to a rebate of $2,000
